On motion duly made and seconded and unanimously carried, the following resolutions were adopted, namely:

Be it ordained by the council of the Town of North Tazewell, Virginia:

1. That the town of North Tazewell hereby declares that it is desirable to annex, in pursuance of the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved March 10, 1994, (Acts 1994, page 144), certain territory of the county of Tazewell, adjacent to the present corporate limits of the said town, being composed of two parcels of land, on the west and south of said town, described as follows:

First parcel: Beginning at a stake on the east line of the old W. W. Peery land, and in west line of the lot formerly known as the Mont Steele formerly known as the daughters and niece of the bride and groom.

The color scheme of decorations was also golden and white, of crepe pt.per and golden gloss.

Several appropriate numbers were rendered on the piano by Mrs. II. Wade Peery, a niece, of North Tazewell, among them being the old songs, such as "Silver Threads Among the Gold," sung by Mrs. I. O Perkins; "Down by the Old Mill Stream," by Miss Lucy Repass and others. Also "Maggie," with variations.

It is The Same Story Everywhere.

"I used 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my daughter ten years old. She had smothering spells and a bad cough. Dectors failed to help her. 'Golden Medical Discovery' was used (only one bottle) and she has not been seriously troubled since."—MRS. ELLA. JOHNSON, Arch Ave., Waynesboro, Va.

Every woman who has reason to believe that backache, headache, unnatural pains, low spirits, sleepless nights, irregularities or a catarrhal condition is caused by a derangement of the womanly functions, owes it to herself and dear ones to speedily overcome the trouble before a general breakdown causes permanent prostration.

When it is required of a man to do a "Man sized day's work," it's a right serious departure when that man is stricken with rheumatism. Mr. Wm. F. Baggett, residing at 4015 Lawson st. Richmond, Va., said: "I was suffering from rheumatic pains and stiff joints, the pains being more intense in my legs than elsewhere. When I got up in the morning I felt so stiff and badly, simply filled with pains all over, it was about impossible to do anything before I gave myself a vigorous rubbing down. I read in the papers of many people being helped by Tanlac, and I decided to give the new medicine a trial. Before finishing the first bottle I began to feel better and my wife commented upon my improvement. Now, after the second bottle has been finished, all pains have disappeared, my appetite has improved, I am feeling fine, and an again able to do a 'Man's sized day's work.' I now recommend Tanlac because I want other sufferers to give this medicine a trial. If they will only give it a fair trial I am sure it will help them as it has me."

Tanlac is now on sale at Dr. John E. Jackson's Drug Store.

A Come-Down.

A Come-Down.

A well known artist was once engaged upon a sacred picture. A very handsome old model named Smith sat for the head of St. Mark. Artist and model became great friends, but when the picture was finished they lost track of each other.

One day, however, the artist, wandering about the London Zoological gardens, came upon his old model with a broom in his hand, looking very disconsolate.

"Hello, Smith," said he; "you don't look very cheery. What are you doing now?"

"Well, I am not doing much, sir, and that's a fact. I'm engaged in these gardens a-cleaning out the elephants' stables—a nice occupation for me as was one of the twelve apostles, isn't it, sir?"
